McConnell to Make Proposition at Next Meeting of Boundary Committees

ONLY WAY TO SAVE FISH

This Is Declaration of La Crosse Legislator Today; Needs Action of Both Legislatures

When the boundary committees, appointed by the Wisconsin and Minnesota legislatures to settle the disputes over the boundary lines in Lake Pepin and the St. Louis river, meet in St. Paul December 6, Assemblyman John McConnell of La Crosse, will propose that recommendations be made to both legislatures that all seining and netting rights be revoked for five years.

The fish supply is being depleted rapidly, maintains the La Crosse legislator and the only way to conserve the fish is to prevent their being netted and seined by the thousands. The agitation against the work of government and state fishery and the stopping of the work Curlew has accomplished. Mr. McConnell maintains should also be put to rest by individuals.

M'NAMARA NEEDS UNIONS' SUPPORT

They Are Innocent of Dynamiting Charge, Claims St. Paul Man Yesterday

DENGLER ADDRESSES LABOR

La Crosse Mayor Delivers Appeal to Large Crowd at Shooting Park Monday

That John J. McNamara, who is now being held for trial, charged with having dynamited the Los Angeles Times' building, is absolutely innocent of the charge and deserves the support of every union man in the country, was the statement of E. C. James of St. Paul, when delivering the Labor Day address at Shooting Park yesterday afternoon.

Mr. James declared that he is personally acquainted with James McNamara and asserts that he is a broadminded man of high morals and has always been one of the foremost in the ranks of organized labor to advocate peaceful measures and would be the last man in the world to tolerate the shedding of blood as a means of either reaching a settlement or of revenge.

"Least of all would James McNamara have destroyed the lives a score of his own brother workmen, several of whom were in the building at the time of the catastrophe and who met death as the result of the explosion," said Mr. James.

"As a matter of fact, the investigation which followed the accident, and I hold that it was an accident, showed that the destruction of the building was due to an explosion of gas and was not premeditated by anybody.

"As evidence of McNamara's guilt, the prosecution maintains that dynamite found in the basement of the building in which McNamara's office was located, is sufficient to convict him of the charge, while if James McNamara were really guilty of the foul deed of which he is accused, he would have had more intelligence than to leave such evidence of crime at his very door."

Mr. James also denounced the arrest of McNamara as a violation of the rights of every citizen in the United States and asserted that it was more or less than kidnapping as Detective Burns who arrested had no warrant issued by the state of Indiana, where McNamara was made.

FREMONT SCENE OF A BAD WRECK

Velvet Special Ditched and Three Are Killed and, Forty Injured in Smash

FREMONT, Wis., Sept. 5.—Three persons are dead and more than forty injured some seriously, as the result of the derailment of train number 17, a limited passenger train made up of steel equipment on the Soo line running into an open switch one mile south of here early today.

The wrecked train was known as the Velvet Special. Two Pullman cars remained on the track. The train is said to have been running at a high rate of speed. Striking the open switch, the engine and mail cars jumped the track and crashed through the right of way fence and into a cornfield, 20 feet distant. The other cars were thrown into the ditch.

Engineer August Kuester, North Fond du Lac, Wis., was instantly killed as was also an unidentified man. The remains of a tramp were later taken out.

Among the seriously injured was Mrs. M. Garvey, 311 Second avenue, Duluth, Minn., and F. Fortune of Detroit, a tramp.

Both were taken to a hospital at Fond du Lac. The man's legs were crushed. Others were rushed to hospitals at Waupaca, Wis.

Officials of the road today gave out a statement in which they charge the wreck was caused by unknown persons tampering with a switch block.

FIGHT FOR CUP BECOMING WARM

Field Narrowed Down to Four for Colman Trophy; Gordon a Probable Winner

Of the sixteen members of the La Crosse Country club who qualified for the match for the Colman cup Saturday afternoon, twelve were eliminated in the preliminaries yesterday.

Following are the results of the first pairing which was played off Monday morning: J. M. Hixon won from J. B. Taylor 5 up and 4 to play; Emil Niemeyer won from G. H. Gordon 7 up 6; E. J. Evans won from F. A. Holbrook 6 up 4; P. M. Gelatt won from H. J. Hirschheimer 4 up 2; G. W. Burton won from A. James 3 up 1; A. A. Morse won from J. J. McMillan 3 up 2; F. H. Hankerson won from F. A. Copeland 8 up 7; and E. Gordon won from C. S. Van Auker 7 up 6.

The winners of the second pairing are: J. M. Hixon from Emil Niemeyer 2 up 1; P. M. Gelatt from E. J. Evans 2 up 1; George Burton from A. A. Morse 8 up 6; and R. Gordon from F. H. Hankerson 4 up 3.

Finals Saturday The semi-finals will be played off by the winners of the second pairing Saturday morning and the finals will be played Saturday afternoon. George Burton who has won the trophy on two previous years, is still in the running and has but two more matches to play. If he wins in this year's match he will hold the cup permanently.

I. C. STRIKE NEAR

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—Officers of the Illinois Central railroad today broke off all negotiations with the new "system federation" including blacksmiths, shopmen and some other employees, who have threatened to strike.

The railroad officially notified the unions. The men are now in conference. A strike seems to impend. Later in the afternoon, although no formal statement was issued by the Illinois Central employees it was intimated by the officials of the unions affected that there would be overtures for further negotiations with the railroad. It is believed that their demands will be somewhat modified and presented a second time to the railroad.

Await Eastern Leaders SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 5.—The leaders of the unions involved in the proposed strike on the Harriman railroads in the west are marking time here while they await the arrival of young leaders from the east for conference. The last of the easterners is expected to arrive tonight and the first conference will probably be held tomorrow.

WHIPPING SPURS GIRL TO SUICIDE

Rose McGregor Attempt to End Life Following Alleged Beating by Father

CAME LATE FROM DANCE

Is Found by Street Car Men on Lonely Bridge Over La Crosse River at 2:30 A. M.

A beating administered by her father, Fred McGregor, a street car conductor, upon her return from the Labor day dance at an early hour this morning, is the reason assigned by eighteen-year-old Rose McGregor, 408 North Fourteenth street, for her alleged attempt at suicide early today.

Miss McGregor was found at 2:30 o'clock this morning on the bridge across the La Crosse river by street car men. She was in a serious condition and a ribbon was tightly wrapped around her throat in an effort to choke out life.

She was taken to the police station and although Chief Webber denies, knowledge of it, it is claimed she made a second attempt to end her life by swallowing pins.

Wanted to Suicide Numerous whippings, which often reached the beating stage, are claimed by the young girl to have prompted her desire to suicide and she maintains that the treatment she received upon her return from the dance this morning was unusually harsh.

Miss McGregor sobbingly told Chief Webber the story of her troubles with her father. She maintained that he was up when she came from the dance and set upon her and proceeded to pummel her most unmercifully. She exhibits a pair of slightly discolored eyes in substantiation of her claim that he attacked her with his fists.

After the pummeling she says she crept to her room, waited until her father was asleep and then stole out into the night. She says she remembers little of what transpired after that, but admits she was going to kill herself.

Denies Using Fists Fred McGregor, father of the girl, this morning denied to the police that he beat the girl with his fists. He explained the black eyes by maintaining she fell over a boy's bicycle in the house.

MALT HOUSE LOST

KEWASKUM, Wis., Sept. 5.—Fire of unknown origin today totally destroyed the R. Rosenheimer company malt house here containing 110,000 bushels of barley, and adjacent property causing an estimated loss of $250,000. Calls for aid were sent to surrounding cities and the fire which threatened the entire town brought under control with difficulty.

WEATHER

For La Crosse and vicinity: Showers and cooler tonight; Wednesday generally fair and moderately cool. For Wisconsin: Showers, and cooler tonight; Wednesday cloudy with cooler southeast portion. For Minnesota: Threatening and cooler tonight; Wednesday generally fair. For Iowa: Unsettled weather with showers tonight or Wednesday; cooler tonight and southeast portion Wednesday.

Weather Notes Light to heavy showers and local thunderstorms have been general during the past 24 hours from north Pacific states eastward to upper lakes and in the central Mississippi valley. The weather is throughout this section this morning with rain at several stations. Light showers have also occurred throughout the southern half of the country but the weather has cleared at most stations. Fair weather has prevailed in the middle and north Atlantic states.

The temperature is slightly higher from the Mississippi valley to the Atlantic coast and lower through the northwest. A moderate depression is central over this section and another low covers the Plateau region while an area of high pressure overlies the Canadian northwest. These pressure conditions indicate unsettled and cooler weather, with showers in this section tonight and generally fair and moderately cool weather Wednesday.

The following heavy precipitation (in inches) is reported: Portland, Ore., 2.58; Havre, 1.58; Duluth, 1.70; St. Paul, 1.00; Stillwater, 1.12; Red Wing, 1.12; St. Louis, 3.04.

QUINTETTE MAKES GREAT HIT HERE

Majestic Bill This Week
One of Unusual Worth, and Crowds See All Performances

The Grand Opera Quintette at the Majestic this week is presenting music of unquestioned worth. All artists, they have crowded into a twenty minute "turn" enough music—and as good—as anything found on the Grand Opera stage.
This act is in reality a treat for the music lovers here and that good singing is appreciated was shown by the tremendous applause that followed each number.

"Nerve," is the title of a little sketch presented by the Bloomquist Players and it is clever in the extreme. The act, which is in reality a one act comedy, has a plot that is thick enough to make the interest intense. The players are real actors and their work is meritorious.

Low Wells, who carried New York by storm, made good in Chicago and is now "cleaning up" the west, made his usual good impression last night. Wells is equipped with a remarkable flow of talk, mostly comedy, and his act is a scream from beginning to end.

As singers and dancers, the Three Harris Bros., are clever and had no difficulty in getting a generous share of applause last night.

A. K. Caldeara & Co., present a unique juggling and wire act. The act is filled with novelties and their offering was well received here.

The motograph this week presents two very clever comedy films that are in reality a show alone.

BLAIR CLINCHES THE W. W. PENNANT

BLAIR, Wis., Sept. 5. — Blair went down to Whitehall with nine husky warriors armed with nicely polished war clubs and aided by two hundred strong chested rooters determined to get the scalp of the Whitehall Aeroplanes and succeeded to the tune of 19 to 5 yesterday, winning the W. W. pennant.
The hotly contested fifteen inning fracas of the previous Sunday caused the players to go into this game with a determination to win such as they never showed before. Benrud, late favorite baseballist of Blair and now a star of the Minny league, secured his release from Eau Claire and reached Whitehall just in time to get into the game.

Hi, who filled the box, saw that he was off color and retired after the fourth inning in favor of Jacques. From that time on there was no doubt as to the final outcome of the game. The well known heavy hitters from Blair fattened their batting averages and without any exertion whatsoever, ran their total up to nineteen.

LA CROSSE GIRL WEDS

"A very pretty wedding was solemnized," says the Conrad, Mont., Observer, "Wednesday, August 30th, 1911 at high noon in the First Presbyterian church by Rev. Hanson, when Miss Marjorie Savage, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Savage of this city, became the wife of Henry A. Sprague, of Midford, Oregon. Just preceding the ceremony, Mr. Merrill Savage rendered two solos—A Song of Thanksgiving and 'Beloved, It is Morning.' At the beautiful strains of Mendelson's 'Wedding march, played by Mrs. A.
D. Johnson, the wedding party advanced, the bride on the arm of her father. She was becomingly attired in a gown of white meteor crepe and carried bouquet of white sweet peas and maidenhair ferns. Miss Edith Simerman, as maid of honor, wore lavender crepe, a picture hat and carried pink sweet peas. The mother of the bride wore violet silk and carried violet sweet peas. The groom, best man and ushers wore the conventional black. Mr. Merrill Savage, the bride's brother, acted as best man. Mr. Orville Routt and Arthur Range were ushers. Little Helen Salsbury, as flower girl, walked with Master Chas. Johnson as ring bearer. The church was tastefully decorated with Mountain fir and Marguerites.

"After the ceremony the guests repaired to the residence, where a reception was given. The rooms were profusely decorated with ferns and sweet peas.
"The assisting ladies were Mesdames Wilcox, Jones, Hartley, Whitmore and the Misses Georgia Bogart, Ruth Hartley and Martha Brownell.

"The out of town guests were Mrs.
T. O. Mirmann of St. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Whitmore of Valier, Mr.
Wm. Stevens of Missoula and Mr.
McRath of Great Falls.

"Among the many beautiful gifts received was a diamond and pearl necklace from the groom's father to the bride.

"Mr. and Mrs. Sprague left on 4:55 Burlington for Lake McDonald, where they will spend two weeks and then east to St. Paul, Minneapolis, Caledonia, Minn., La Crosse, Wisconsin, then on up through Canada to Midford, Oregon, where the groom is extensively engaged in the lumber business."

The bride was a former La Crosse girl, having lived in this city all of her life until a few years ago when she went with her parents to Montana to reside. Both Mr. and Mrs.
Sprague were graduates of the La Crosse high school and were popular with the young people here.

OREGON'S RECORD BEST IN COUNTRY

This Is Claim of Senator Jonathan Bourne, Jr.,
Head of Progressive League

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5. —"No legislature in American can point to a record as commendable as that of the people of Oregon in establishment of better government."

Such is the assertion made by Senator Jonathan Bourne, Jr., president of the National Progressive Republican League, in response to a request from the Direct Legislation League of New Hampshire for a statement of results of direct legislation in Oregon. His letter enumerates some of the popular government achievements as follows:

"Under the initiative the people of Oregon have secured an effective direct primary law and a thorough corrupt practices act which the legislature refused to enact. These two measures have done more than all else to purify Oregon politics and overthrow machine domination. If no other results had been accomplished, this alone would fully justify the trouble and expense incurred.

"But we have also in the list of accomplishments: The recall, home rule for cities, conservation of the Columbia River Fisheries and the presidential preference law. This last mentioned law has been enacted in four other states and is the beginning of the end of the National political machine. By means of the referendum the people have defeated undesired laws passed by the legislature.

"While enemies of popular government fight our laws with sneers and ridicule, they have never pointed out a single instance in which the state has suffered injury as a result of direct legislation. The people will never adopt a measure unless convinced that it is a change for the better. Popular government is constructive, not destructive. It educates and develops the electorate, eliminates legislative blackmail and prevents grants of special privileges against general welfare."

Ermine at the Coronation.

The finest ermine skins come from the continent. Those from America are not nearly so fine in quality. The former skins have been principally used by the best West end houses, but a good many skins come in from America, and a good number of these have undoubtedly been used for coronation robes.

The statement from St. Louis that 250,000 skins were used for the czar of Russia's cloak caused much amusement, and is regarded by the trade here as an example of American humor. When we come to think of it, a quarter million skins does seem a bit tall, considering that at the March sales in London, which are the biggest of the year, only 180,000 skins were offered. These fetched as high as 340 shillings a timber, which is 40 skins, while the average price was round about 250 shillings.—London

the Misses Fanny and Anne Brayton and Miss Bigham at a week's end

SOCIAL BRIEFS

Miss Grace Cameron, 1302 State street, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Dr. Cary, St. Paul.

Mrs. David Austin will leave tomorrow for Tullahoma, Tenn., to be absent several weeks. She will be accompanied by Miss Betty Hill of Chicago.

Miss Helen Scofield returned yesterday from Lake Geneva, where she has been attending the convention of the Y. W. C. A.

Miss Fanny Clarke, who has been spending a few days with her mother, left Sunday night for her school at Leeds, S. D.

Miss Nellie MacDonald left today for Winnipeg, where she will spend the remainder of this month. Her brother, Robert MacDonald, accompanied her as far as Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cilly have gone to Minneapolis and Duluth for a visit.

Mrs. A. S. Willoughby of Minneapolis, is the guest of Mrs. E. G.
Perkins.

some time ago is all right. Look at my hair now.

IT WAS PRETTY GRAY, wasn't it?
And now see the color; it's beginning to look as it did when I was young, a natural dark.

AND ALL DANDRUFF and itching of my scalp stopped, too, and see how nice and glossy the hair looks.

YOU'RE ALRIGHT in recommend-

RUSSIAN SHOWS YELLOW STREAK

Hackenschmidt Lays Down in Mat Battle for World's Title; Gotch Wins
in 19:50 2-5

MATCH WAS WITHOUT LIFE

Champ Plays with the Lion; Takes First in 14:18½ and Second
in 5:32 1-5

Winner—Frank Gotch of Humboldt, Iowa, champion wrestler of the world.

Losers—George Hackenschmidt of Dorpat, Russia, European champion. First fall—Gotch pinned Hackenschmidt with a reverse body hold. Time, 14:14 1-5.

Second fall—Gotch pinned Hackenschmidt with a toe lock. Time, 5:32 1-5.

Total wrestling time—19:50 2-5.

Result of preliminaries—Post throw Sampson in 18 minutes; Rogers threw Ehler in 1½ minutes.

Attendance—30,000 (estimated).

Total receipts—$87,053.

Gotch—$21,000.

Club expenses—$4,000.

Hackenschmidt—$13,500.

Club profits—$13,962.

Curley's winnings—$34,521.

Incidentals—$70.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—Stung by newspaper criticisms of his showing in the match with Gotch yesterday, Hackenschmidt today brought his injured knee prominently to the front and issued a challenge to the Iowa farmer. Hack's proposition is that the bout be held in private with the Chicago newspaper sporting editors as the audience, and a side bet of $5,000 as the inducement. He realizes no one would pay to see the match and the sporting editors would have to go.

"Gotch couldn't throw me in a week, unless he knew I was crippled," said Hack. Then he demanded that the new match be held after he had gone back to England and given his knee time to heal completely. This condition will probably prevent the men getting together.

Gotch said he was perfectly willing to wrestle under the conditions specified and Manaker Klank attended to the "stage business," pulling five $1,000 bills from the grip in which Gotch's share of yesterday's plunder was reposing.

Both managers insisted however that the match must take place within two months, because of Gotch's European tour. Hack's challenge was made after the Gotch plans had been announced.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—There is but one conclusion drawn today by the 28,000 persons who witnessed yesterday's fiasco when Frank Gotch, world's champion wrestler, made George Hackenschmidt, the Russian, quit cold. That conclusion is that, having received his money in advance, and having nothing in the world to gain by straining or struggling hard, Hackenschmidt quit cold, laying flat on his back to hide the streak of yellow that showed through the yellow skin.

Gotch Meant Business

Gotch, in condition and trained as hard as ever before in his life, was ready to give the spectators a fight for their money. He was earnest and conscientious and when he saw the hog fat come into the ring, threw him the moment he could, to end the disgusting spectacle. It is hardly probable Hack will ever get another chance to wrestle in America.

About the only really interesting thing about the match was that the moving pictures of the bout, which ended at 4 o'clock, was exhibited in a local theater last night. They showed clearly Gotch mastered the Russian.

Curley Turned Trick

The fact that Jack Curley, manager for Hackenschmidt, also was promoter of the match and Secretary of the Empire A. C., caused much unfavorable comment after a result of the miserable fiasco.

It is believed the farce will put an end to the wrestling game on a big scale for years to come in Chicago.

Wrestling fans had paid $87,053 to see the affair. Of this Gotch received $21,000. The club's expenses were $4,000. Hackenschmidt received $13,500. The club got $18,616, less 25 per cent of that sum, which was added to Curley's "cut," or $13,962. Curley got $29,937, plus one-quarter of the club's net profits, amounting to $4,654, making his total winning on the match $34,591 and one-quarter of the moving picture royalties. This accounts for the receipts excepting $70.00.

Curley's admission that he knew of Hackenschmidt's "injury" for two weeks and would not make an effort to postpone the match so that the Russian might recover, has left a bad taste in the mouths of mat fans.

Bets Declared Off

Before the match Referee Ed Smith called all bets off, at the order of the police and of President Comiskey of the White Sox, who wanted no bets made in the White Sox park. Referee Smith declared today he did not know of Hackenschmidt's alleged injury and that had nothing to do with his action.

A Pitiful Showing

The Russian's showing was pitiful. The crowd decreed that he had "quit," but the defeated challenger, through copious tears, averred that he entered the arena with a wrenched knee, on which Gotch worked, and speedily reduced him to a comparatively helpless state.

In any event it is certain that the Russian's nerves were on edge.

PEACE NOW OUT FOR LA FOLLETTE

Publisher of Leading Farm Papers of Iowa, Wisconsin and Kansas Attacks Taft

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 5.—James A. Pearce's "Iowa Homestead," one of the leading agricultural papers in America, always heretofore standpat, today bitterly attacked President Taft in a leading editorial and called upon the farmer to nominate La Follette for president.

Pearce owns other agricultural papers in Wisconsin and Kansas and it is expected they will take the same attitude. The editorial attacks Canada reciprocity and says: "The Iowa Homestead believes that now is the time for the 33,000,000 American farmers to decide once and for all that the man who injures their welfare, who betrays them to the interested interests is not deserving of their continued support, no matter with what honeyed words he may attempt to explain and condone the wrong already done."

After mentioning the reason why farmers should support La Follette and Gov. Woodrow Wilson of the New Jersey, the Homestead says:

"La Follette is the leader of the senate. His personality is stamped on the legislation enacted there. The chief speech in the senate against one sided Canadian reciprocity was delivered by him; he is the pioneer of the reformers, the man who blazes the way for the other progressives to follow. Theodore Roosevelt has vouched for him. The Homestead hopes the republicans will choose him as their nominee for president."

pale when he crawled through the ropes. Dr. J. J. Davis, who examined both wrestlers before they went to the mat, declared that while there might be something wrong with Hack's knee it was not evident during the examination.

While it took Gotch 14 minutes and 18 seconds to gain the first fall, the second fall required only five minutes and 32 seconds, which Hackenschmidt's friends assert proved that his knee was in bad condition.

Cries With Pain

Referee Smith is authority for the statement that when Gotch secured the watal lock which won him the match Hackenschmidt cried out, "Don't hurt my toe," and a second later, "Don't break my leg," and fell with his shoulders to the mat, frothing at the mouth.

The first fall resulted from a reverse body hold after the men had struggled 14:18 1-5.

That terrible toe hold for which Gotch is famous was responsible for the second fall. He clamped it upon the left foot of Hackenschmidt after the second fall had gone 5:32 1-5. Scarcely had he obtained the grip when Hackenschmidt acknowledged defeat.

Hackenschmidt's own statement that it was the "easiest world's championship ever won," tells the story of the bout almost as well as it could be told. Gotch never was in serious difficulty at any time during the match. Neither was he forced to extend himself to win. The Iowa secured in all perhaps half a dozen dangerous holds on his antagonist.

Gotch Worried Once

Hackenschmidt had Gotch worried but once. During the first fall Hackenschmidt obtained a body hold on Gotch that brought him to the mat. But the champion was on the canvas for but a few seconds. Then he was only down as far as his knees. Almost before the "lion" realized that his opponent was in a dangerous predicament, Gotch had wriggled out of the hold and was bounding across the ring to safety.

To Tour World

A nine months' tour of the principal cities of the world then retirement to his farm near Humboldt, Iowa, is Gotch's plan. To the United Press he said:

"My plans for the future I shall arrange my affairs for a tour through the United States, England and Scotland, then France, Germany, Austria, Sweden and a stop in Athens, Greece, where wrestling has always been an honored pastime."

"Then I shall go to Africa and Australia and finally to Honolulu, exhibiting on the way in the world's capitals and larger cities. Dates are already assured in London, Liverpool, Moscow, Paris, Berlin and other foreign cities."

"After Honolulu I shall go back to the farm."

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—(Special.)—The new branch of the state tax commission in charge of the settlement of inheritance, is negotiating with the estate of the late Morris K. Jessup, the New York philanthropist, for the collection of over $16,000 claimed to be due the state of Wisconsin as taxes on stocks held in Wisconsin properties.

A substantial agreement has been reached by John Harrington, supervisor of the bureau, and attorneys for the Jessup estate and it is expected a settlement will be made very soon. The estate held stock in the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, and the Northern Pacific Railway companies to the value of $72,575.

The state also has started proceedings to collect $2.10 from the estate of the late H. O. Havemeyer, sugar magnate, of New York, and is now closing a case against the estate of W. M. Phillips of New York, which yields about $12,000.

Under cross-examination Smith endeavored to show that the family of Paul has been acting throughout the case to protect Paul. He and Wendenburg argued over this point and the defense battered at the little woman on the stand in an effort to confuse her.

John F. McEvoy said that on either Wednesday or Friday night before the murder he saw Henry and Paul, both of whom he knew, in his uncle's saloon.

Yesterday Henry Beattie flatly denied this.

James Rafter, night watchman on the bridge where Paul Beattie was employed as a day watchman, took the stand. He declared he never saw a gun in the cement house where Ernest Nebilitt said Paul had a shotgun on the Sunday before the murder.

A. B. Houchens, father of Paul's wife, who is also a night watchman, declared he met Paul as he went to work Sunday morning and that he had no gun.

Wm. H. Sharp said that Nebilitt last week had asked to have Paul Beattie pointed out to him, because Nebilitt did not know Paul.

HIGH SCHOOL DANCE

The Boys' Athletic association of the High school held its annual Christmas dance last night in the Elks' hall. The event was very well attended by graduates, students and friends of the school, about ninety couples being in attendance.

The decorations were very elaborate. The chandeliers were covered with beautiful sprays of southern smilax. Large holly wreaths tied with large bows of red ribbon were hung at the windows and along the wall. A white lattice work edged the front of the stage behind which was a row of small evergreen trees which concealed the orchestra. At the entrance of the ball room was an arbor of trellis work covered with smilax. Poinsetta and green vines were placed at one end and in the corners, making delightful nooks.

The committee in charge of this dance are to be congratulated on the success of the affair and the novelty dark dances introduced by them. The coffers of the Athletic association are considerably swelled with the proceeds.

TO ENTERTAIN

The Woman's Guild of Christ church will be entertained in the guild room next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 by Mesdames W. Gaspar, A. R. Nelson and C. W. Noble.

DANCING PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Scott gave a dancing party for their daughter, Mildred, assisted by Miss Emma Dittman and Miss Geneva Atkinson. The house was decorated with Christmas flowers and greens. The guests were Elizabeth Woeff, Jessie Wallace, Julia Colman, Ellen Hankerson, Magdalene Felber, Harriet Scofield, Frances Burroughs, Mildred Waters, Helen Burke, Laila Spellum, Helen Yeoman, Andrew Boyd, Sney Burroughs, Earl Hirschheimer, Jack Brindley, George Cargill, Gordon Holway, Burton James, Arthur Evans, Otto Warner, Samuel Anderson. There was a program of fifteen numbers.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. C. Johnson of 712 South Ninth street, announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Maybelle Atherton to Mr. A. Morey of Chicago.

DINNER AT HOTEL LA CROSSE

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hunt will entertain this evening at a dinner of twelve covers at Hotel La Crosse. The guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sisson, Mr. and Mrs. Colburn, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Fullmer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher.

THOMPSON-SQUIRES WEDDING

The following from a St. Paul paper will be of interest to La Crosse people as the bridegroom was born in this city and lived here a good part of his younger days, and has many warm friends here:

Miss Mary Rebecca Squires, the daughter of Mrs. George C. Squires of 698 Oakland avenue, St. Paul, who for several years lived in Minneapolis at the Plaza hotel, with her mother, became the bride yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock of Mackey Thompson of St. Paul. The ceremony took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lucius P. Ordway in St. Paul, and Rev. J. A. Schaad officiated. The beautiful Ordway home was a bower of Christmas greenery combined with palms, ferns and red blossoms. In the reception hall was an improvised altar of palms and ferns and cathedral candles before which the vows were spoken.

Frank J. Clarke, an uncle of the bride, had come from New York, and he gave his niece in marriage. Miss Anne McKibbin was the maid of honor and Helmus Thompson, a brother of the bridegroom of Oregon, was best man.

The bride's gown was fashioned of white satin made empire with folds of tulle about the neck and the elbow sleeves. Her tulle veil was held by a bandeau of pearls and her flowers were lilies of the valley and orchids. The necklace of pearls and the lace handkerchief which completed the bridal costume, had been worn by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. H. M. Smyth, on her wedding day. Miss McKibbin was in a gown of white satin veiled in white marquisette and her bouquet of maidenhair ferns had in its center a huge poinsetta.

After the ceremony a reception was held and later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left on an eastern wedding tour. They will occupy the home of Mrs. Thompson's mother and will be at home after Feb. 1, as Mrs. Squires will leave for the east after the holidays to spend the remainder of the winter. The guests from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. Clark Thompson, Helmus Thompson and Mortimer Thompson of Cascade Locks, Ore.; Mrs. Perry and her daughter, Mrs. Walter Forbes of Rockford, Ill., and Miss Wells of Milwaukee, a cousin of Mr. Thompson. George Squires, a brother of the bride, who goes to school in Connecticut, came home for the wedding and also to spend his Christmas vacation.

A WINTER OUTING

Mrs. A. P. Hankerson, Mrs. Ralph Toland and Miss Mae Williams chaperoned a merry party of youngsters yesterday at the Law cottage. A nice hot oyster stew regaled them upon their arrival, after which they enjoyed out of door sports, coasting and skiing and snowballing. In the party were Robert and Billy Hurtgen, Jack and Newell Holley, Carl Van Auker, Hewitt Toland and Emmeta Finch.

TEMPLARS TO DANCE

La-Crosse commandery No. 9, Knight Templars, will give a reception and dance Monday afternoon and evening, January 1. Dancing will begin at 3 o'clock. Dinner will be served at 6:30. Grand march at 8:30.

Following are the committees in charge:

Committee on arrangements—W. S. Woods, chairman; H. S. Burroughs, Jno. E. Langdon.

18k WEDDING RINGS WEDDING RINGS 14k WEDDING RINGS

We make and sell the most perfect rings. None but the purest 18 or 14k gold is used and every ring is wrought from one piece of gold without a seam or joint to mar their beauty. Our rings are made to correct widths and weights, which has required many years of experience and patience. For 33 years I have been making and selling wedding rings, and each year have tried to make a better and more perfect ring. In these many years of practical ring making I have learned a great deal and now offer a ring that is absolutely perfect. I have every weight and every size in stock and can please the most fastidious tastes. We never cut a ring to make it fit. Beware of those who do. Our great range of sizes makes alterations unnecessary. Initials engraved free.

POLICE TO FORCE PEACE WITH CLUB AT PEACE DINNER

Promoters of Banquet at New York Fear "War Spirit" Will Get the Upper Hand

STRONG ARM SQUAD READY

Massive "Coppers" in Open Faced Clothes Will "Give the Air" to All Disturbers

TAFT TO BE UNDER GUARD

President Expected to Be in War-like Mood; will Answer Roosevelt Charge

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—It will be compulsory peace at the widely heralded "peace dinner" at the Waldorf tonight. So thoroughly have the promoters absorbed the "war spirit" as the result of their ten days of wrangling, that peculiar precautions have been taken to prevent untoward incidents. For the first time in the history of a formal dinner in this city, a squad of thirty members of the "strong arm" squad of the New York police will be in attendance in the dining room. They will squeeze their massive muscles into open faced clothes, will wear patent leather shoes that pinch their elongated Trilbies and will make as brave a front as any of the other guests. And they will also be prepared to "give the air" to any guest who refuses to accept his peace undiluted exactly as the committee of arrangements desire.

Will Protest Taft
"The strong armers" and a detachment of fifty policemen in uniform will be especially commissioned to guard President Taft and to see that he at least is not made a part of the wrangling that has marked the preliminaries to the dinner. Even the president, however, is expected to be in a warlike mood for him. It is stated that he will not make a set speech but will talk right off the bat, and that he will likely make a hot reply to Colonel Roosevelt's allegation that the peace treaties "were conceived in a spirit of hypocrisy."

Andrew Carnegie, Charles A. Towne and Henry Clews are also scheduled to talk. Among the expected guests are the Russian, Turkish, Japanese, Brazilian, French and Austro-Hungarian ambassadors and most of the ministers accredited to this country. Roosevelt is Emphatic Colonel Roosevelt's correspondence with Captain Bloomer, secretary of the committee, was made public today. In it the colonel emphatically set forth his reasons for declining to participate in the banquet. In part he said:
"I am sorry to say that I cannot permit the use of my name for that citizens peace banquet, simply because I do not know what the banquet is for. If it is meant to overawe the senate, and cause that body against its conscience to support the amended treaties, which the senate committee on foreign relations has shown by unanswerable argument to be hostile to the honor and interest of the American people, then I am not in sympathy with it. For instance if you propose to support the arbitration treaties unamended, then I think that you are not merely wrong, but that you are engaged in what is essentially an unworthy, and however, unconsciously, a hypocritical move against the interest of peace and against the honor and interest of the U. S. and of civilization. If you intend to support these treaties, however, with the amendments introduced by Senators Root and Lodge, then you are right, because you are supporting what is not very important, but still sincere effort to

TAFT ANNOUNCEMENT PLEASES INSURGENTS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Leaders at the campaign headquarters of the republican progressive league here expressed jubilation over the announcement from the White house that President Taft would carry his side of the campaign through Ohio in several speeches during the last week in January.

"We are extremely pleased with the news that President Taft intends to follow up Senator La Follette," said Representative Nelson (Rep., Wis.), one of the recent addressees to the staff of workers here. "The announcement shows that the stand-patter out there are awakening to the knowledge that theirs is a losing fight and they are trying desperately to stem the tide by calling on President Taft."

MEETINGS PROVED SAYS WILKERSON

Next Step in Packers' Trial Will Be to Prove Consumption of the Monopoly

REPORTS IN SECRET CODE

Prices and Amounts of Business Allowed Each Firm Fixed at Secret Conferences

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—After four days of testimony in the case of the ten millionaire packers on trial for criminal conspiracy in restraint of trade before Federal Judge Carpenter, United States District Attorney Wilkerson today contends that the government has proven a series of conferences and secret meetings among the defendants, clearly showing their intention to organize a monopoly in the meat industry by regulating supply, fixing prices and putting competitors out of business. That such a monopoly was finally consummated in the formation of the National Packing company is the next step, according to the government. The ground work for this proof has already been laid in the testimony regarding the negotiations leading up to the incorporation of the National company in 1903.

Parcel Out Business
The testimony of Henry Veeder, which will be resumed when court reconvenes January 2, has brought out the intention of the packers as far back as 1893 to reach an iron-clad monopoly agreement. In that year, Veeder said, Gustavus Swift, D. E. Hartwell, secretary of the Swift company, and E. J. Martin, representing Armour, directed him to act as secretary of a series of meetings.

Secret Report Code
Reports were sent to members each week by a secret code with each packing company designated by a mysterious sign. Prices and amounts of shipments for succeeding weeks were sent out to all managers in various territories. All this testimony was given over the objection of the defense and is still to be ruled on by Judge Carpenter. The defense holds that this pool "P. O. box 247" existed prior to the three year period over which the indictments extend and is therefore inadmissible. The government obtained its temporary admission on the promise to prove that all acts of the packers, from 1903 to the time of the indictments, constituted one continuing conspiracy and therefore is competent evidence.

WAR ON ESCH IS STARTED IN THE DISTRICT CLUB

evening, and the preconcerted nature of the coup armed the Esch men with the argument that while tentative opponents "wise" to the program had been given opportunity to get their friends out to the meeting, Esch progressives who would have come had they known, were not there to be counted for their man. While allusions to this subject were diplomatic, there had been some feeling, and considerable suppressed excitement.

Out of Order
Chairman McFarlan, following Mr. Hull's objection, said the point was well taken, and suggested that the meeting adjourn and a meeting of the new District organization, whose officers were all present, be immediately called.

Mr. Bosshard then offered a resolution to the effect that the officers of the District association be instructed to meet immediately and call a meeting to be held at Camp Douglas within three weeks to consider congressional matters.

New Coup Works
Evidently prepared to appeal from the decision of the chair unless immediate action by the new District league could be assured, Messrs. Dithmar and Bosshard interrogated Chairman Teasdale as to his willingness to call a meeting of the District league upon the adjournment of the convention. Senator Teasdale said he would do so, and adjournment was taken.

The Seventh District Progressive Republican league was then called to order by Chairman Teasdale. Mr. Bosshard put his original motion, which was carried unanimously, and adjournment followed.

After the meeting, the call for the conference to be held at Camp Douglas Jan. 18 was officially issued.

strict. It develops that the law creating the district does not become effective until a date later than that set for the election of delegates if the usual method be pursued. A scheme to conform both to the state law and the call issued by the republican national committee was, by resolution, tendered for consideration by the state central committee.

A Great Meeting
Speakers joined in congratulations upon the size and enthusiasm of the meeting, which they characterized as a success beyond the fondest hopes of its promoters.

TWO HUNDRED AT TRAVELERS' BALL

Informal Hop of U. C. T. Is Big Success; Linker Hall Beautifully Decorated

Nearly one hundred members of the United Commercial Travelers, together with their wives and friends, attended the annual ball of the U. C. T. held at Linker's hall last night. The hall was artistically decorated for the occasion with Christmas trees, ribbon streamers, colored lights and ferns.

A large number of the local business men and members of other branches of the U. C. T. were present.

Andre's orchestra furnished the music for the dancing. By 11:30 the "Knights of the Grip" found that something was wanting, despite the ever ready punch bowl in the adjoining room, and a halt was called for the supper which had been arranged at Schrank's cafe. The dance continued until 2 o'clock.

WHEAT CROP GAINS IN THE NORTHWEST

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 30.—(Special.)—Northwest farmers are raising more and better wheat to the acre than ever before. The census bureau find that Washington is the banner wheat state of the Pacific coast and Rocky mountain country, although not so great a producer as the Dakotas and some other states in the north central part of the United States. Oregon ranks next to Washington and is the second largest producer in the Pacific coast and Rocky mountain region. Idaho ranks third.

At the same time, northwest farmers are giving more attention to their tillage and seed selection, the result being a more prolific yield of grain to the acre. More knowledge of the proper treatment of semiarid soils by the new dry-farming methods are held accountable in a large degree for the increased crops.

"SHE" IN PICTURES AT THE LYRIC

H. Rider Haggard's greatest novel "She" has been filmed by the Thanhouser Co. and the picture ranks easily as one of the leading two-film subjects shown this season. Readers of this wonderfully weird and thrilling story will welcome this version. The photography is remarkable, the costumes and settings are all that can be asked, and the scenic effects are nothing less than wonderful. These features, combined with an intelligent presentation by a superior company conspire to make a picture that is weird, thrilling and remarkable in the extreme.

"She" is presented in two reels and will be shown at the Lyric Theatre today only.

STEAMER HAS BERTH IN MUD

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Dec. 30.—The Joy line steamer Georgia went ashore on the mud flats in upper Narragansett bay yesterday morning, in a terrific off-shore gale that made the tide the lowest in years. Up to 10 o'clock the passengers had not been taken off, it being considered they were not in any danger. The captain is waiting an incoming tide to float the ship.

The Old and the New

With the passing of the year we extend our sincere thanks to a clean-cut, brainy public, who have contributed to our really remarkable growth.

But, while we are proud of well earned laurels, we beg to remind you that there is no rarer piece of happiness than to find the morrow confirm the experience of bygone days.

Members of Manchu Royal Family Flee From Peking in the Disguise of Coolies

DOWAGER EMPRESS STAYS

Refuses to Leave Capital Until it Is Captured by Revolutionary Forces

TOKIO, Dec. 30.—Members of the royal family are fleeing in disguise from Peking, according to a dispatch from the Chinese capital today. Prince Chun, the deposed regent, is reported to have disguised himself as a coolie and fled with the seven-year-old emperor. It is reported that he will come to Tokio.

The dowager empress has announced that she will not leave the palace until the revolutionists are in possession of Peking, but she is reported to have been deserted by the majority of her kinsmen who believe they will be executed if they fall into the hands of the republicans.

Dawn of Prosperity

SHANGHAI, Dec. 30.—"China is about to enter upon an era of prosperity and contentment that she has never enjoyed in all her long history."

This was the statement today of Dr. Sun Yet Sen, provisional president of the new republic of China. The executive is enthusiastic over the prospects of peace. Messages are pouring in upon him from all quarters pledging support to the new government. There is little doubt that the national convention to be called soon will declare for a republic and ratify the election of Dr. Sun.

New President Dined
A big dinner was given last night in honor of the new president and Dr. Wu Ting Fang, former minister to Washington and rebel representative in the peace conference. Practically all of the revolutionary leaders in Shanghai attended and pledged their support to Dr. Sun.

KANSAS CITY BANK FORCED TO CLOSE

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 30.—After a conference lasting nearly all night, C. W. Planck, state banking commissioner, early today announced that the American Union Trust company, one of the newest banks in the state, would not open its doors today.

This decision grew out of a detailed investigation of the paper from the Night and Day bank, which the American Union Trust company took over July 26 last. The Night and Day bank, one of a chain of similar institutions throughout the middle and southwest, was later financially embarrassed through the arrest of several of its officials, and the American, it was announced today, was forced to close its doors on account of this.

President L. H. Musser of the American, today announced that the bank would pay all depositors in full, but that it would be some time before this payment could be made.

MISSING DENVER BOY FOUND IN DURANGO

DURANGO, Col., Dec. 30.—Ralph Crabb, the 17-year-old Denver High school boy who disappeared mysteriously on December 4, has been located here. In a statement telegraphed here today, the lad vigorously declared that the stories about a woman being concerned in his disappearance are "all rot."

"It's all rot, too," he added, "that my mind has failed, and that I wandered away. I simply decided to pull out for myself. I just wanted to drift." He says he has been roaming over the state ever since he left Denver.

MISS HALL WEDS WHITEHALL MAN

Miss Imma Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hall, 919 Berlin street, and Mr. Gregor Gibson, Whitehall, were married at Madison Tuesday. Rev. Peterson of the Methodist church performed the ceremony. Mrs. Gibson is well known on the north side. Mr. Gibson is employed as an express agent at Madison. After the wedding tour they will return to Madison, where they will reside.

A GREAT SHOWING OF APPLES.

Some of the finest apples ever seen in La Crosse are on exhibition and for sale at the City Grocery. They are from Leigh Toland's fruit farm, "Sunny Slopes," in Michigan. Mr. Toland has captured the best retail trade in Milwaukee and has practically sold his entire next year's crop in that city. The apples are as fine looking and as nicely packed as Washington apples, and when it comes to flavor, western fruit is not in it.

U. S. SHIP DAMAGED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The torpedo boat Warrington, smashed by a collision at sea yesterday and for a time thought to be sinking, will be towed into Hampton Roads late this afternoon by the revenue cutter Onondago, according to a report received by the navy department. The vessel was so badly damaged that naval officers do not understand why she did not sink with her crew of twenty officers and men.

BANKERS DENY SWINDLE SHARE

Republican National Committeeman from Iowa Is Among Those who Contradict Testimony

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, Dec. 30.—Republican National Committeeman E. E. Hart of this city, president of the First National bank, with other bank officers, was a witness for the defense yesterday in the trial of Ben Marks, indicted for furnishing the Mabray syndicate police protection.
Hart contradicted the testimony of J. C. Mabray, who testified that the bank officials shared in the proceeds of the swindlers. Hart denied that he or any of the officers had received any of the 1 per cent of the plunder asserted to have been collected by Ben Marks from Mabray as pay for protection against loss from any bank paper of the victims of the gang.

J. J. Spindler, cashier of the bank, testified regarding transactions of various victims of the swindle syndicate at the bank, and referred to notes he had made while investigating the matter. He told of the cash-ing of a $5,000 certified check at the bank by John Hemelbrecht of Bancroft, Neb., and of the cashing of a $10,000 draft presented by W. H.
McGrath of Pine City.

Former Chief of Police George H.
Richmond proved a most interesting witness, bristling up with each question put to him by the attorney general who, early in the cross examination, procured an admission from him that he had been removed from office after an investigation by former Attorney General Webb Byers, which was in 1910.

Richmond admitted that Detective Dan Weir and other officers had reported to him the operations of the swindling syndicate and of the rumors and scandal, and that he had told the officers they must obtain more definite information before any action could be taken. He admitted that he had received letters and personal visits from men asserting to have been swindled by the Mabray organization, men who have since been shown to have been among the victims of the gang.

FACE DISFIGURED WITH ECZEMA

Covered with Eruption to Back of Ears So They Hardly Knew What He Looked Like. Used Cuticura
Soap and Ointment. In 4 Weeks Face Fine and Clean.

"Our little boy Gilbert was troubled with eczema when but a few weeks old.
His little face was covered with sores even to back of his ears.
The poor little fellow suffered very much.
The sores began as pimples, his little face was disfigured very much. We hardly knew what he looked like.
The face looked like raw meat. We tried little bags of cloth over his hands to prevent him from scratching.
He was very restless at night, his little face itched.

"We consulted two doctors at Chicago, where we resided at that time. After trying all the medicine of the two doctors without any result, we read of the Cuticura Remedies, and at once bought the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Following the directions carefully and promptly we saw the result, and after four weeks, the dear child's face was as fine and clean as any little baby's face. Every one who saw Gilbert after using the Cuticura Remedies was surprised.
He has a head of hair which is a pride for any boy of his age, three years. We can only recommend the Cuticura Remedies to everybody." (Signed) Mrs. H. Albrecht, Box 883, West Point, Neb., Oct. 26, 1910.

Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are

WINONA DANCES FOR CHARITY'S SAKE

WINONA, Minn., Dec. 30.—Winona's second annual charity ball, given under the direction of the Women's Hospital auxiliary at the Masonic temple Thursday night, was attended by more than 200 couples and was a brilliant social event. The money derived from the ball, which was attended by all of Winona's society, will be used by the auxiliary in the support of the charity bed at the hospital and in general work.

MRS. EBERHART IMPROVES

ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 30.—The general condition of Mrs. A. O. Eberhart, who underwent an operation at the Swedish hospital in Minneapolis Tuesday morning, is reported as good. Her nurse said the patient was gaining strength as rapidly as could be expected.

HOLD HEARING ON INDUSTRIAL LAW

State Commission Calls a Meeting to Discuss Workmen's Safety in Milwaukee

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 30.—The industrial commission today issued a call for a hearing to afford general discussion of rules proposed by that body relating to safety and sanitation standards. The hearing is set for Jan. 27 and will be held in Milwaukee in the rooms of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association.

The rules proposed have been recommended by a committee on safety and sanitation standards, which was named by the commission and which made an exhaustive inquiry.

The law creating the industrial commission provides that all places of employment shall be made safe, and defines a place of employment as "every place, whether indoors or out, or underground, and the premises appurtenant thereto where, either temporarily or permanently, any industry, trade or business is carried on, or where any process or operation, directly or indirectly related to any industry, trade or business is carried on and where any person is, directly or indirectly, employed by another for direct or indirect gain or profit, but shall not include any place where persons are employed in private domestic service or agricultural pursuits which do not involve the use of mechanical power."

The term "safe" as used in the statute is deferred to mean: "Such freedom from damage to life, health or safety of employees or frequenters as the nature of the employment will reasonably permit."

The law makes it the duty of employers to use reasonable precaution to protect its employees and it is with a view to adopting regulations for the administration of these provisions of the law that the commission purposes to adopt the rules under consideration.

COLD WAVE IS COMING

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 30.—A real

TRAVELING SALESMEN HELD PENDING PROBE

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 29.— John F. Rowell, Lincoln, Neb., traveling salesman, is still held by the authorities pending further investigation into circumstances surrounding the death of Mrs. Ida Bell Nelson, 36, also of that city, who died suddenly here. It is stated that conflicting statements by Rowell at the coroner's inquest warrant his being held on a charge of perjury despite the fact that an autopsy elicited that the woman died of natural causes.

Mrs. Nelson, who is said to have a divorced husband in Springfield, Ill., and also in Lincoln, Neb., was,
according to the police, living here with Rowell, who in turn admitted, it is said, he had a wife and two children in Denver. She died suddenly while Rowell was out of the city. At the coroner's office it was stated the disposition of Mrs. Nelson's body awaited a telegram from her son at Lincoln, who had been notified.

SAN DOMINGO PROSPERS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—What the state department regards as another vindication for "dollar diplomacy" was made public here yesterday. It was the report on the finances of the Dominican republic, showing a remarkably healthy growth of business under the American protectorate. The Honduras and Nicaraguan loan treaties, now pending before congress, seek to establish similar financial protectorates in those countries.

BURNS SOFT COAL

Without Smoke or Soot. A strong statement to make for any stove but one that is easily proven with The 20th CENTURY LAUREL HEATER—the pioneer soft coal burning stove.

The great objection against the burning of soft coal has been the black sooty smoke. This heater does not produce black sooty smoke and as soft coal gives as much heat as hard coal, it is the equal of a base burner in heat comfort and cleanliness.

Think of what you save on coal bills by using soft coal, lignite or slack.

Come in and let us explain how the coal is consumed without giving off smoke. Let us show you the patented device for adding new fuel to the fire, that prevents soot or dirt from escaping into the room; how the mica in the door is kept clean and bright.

The illustration gives you some impression of the beauty of this wonderful heater. Wearing or heating qualities and strength have not been omitted at the expense of beauty in this heater.

BABE'S TRACKS
CAUSE MYSTERY

Store Entered and Child's Footprints Appear on the Counter, but Nothing Is Missed

Tiny muddy footprints of a barefooted child on the counter of the store of William Brand, 1342 Caledonia street, with nothing missing so far as can be discovered, from the store, are the marks discovered yesterday morning by Miss Vera Jones, clerk in the store, when she opened up in the morning, which point to one of the most mysterious entries of store buildings for many months.

That the child who made the footprints was the accomplice and tool of some larger person who was attempting a systematic robbery of the place is the belief of Miss Jones, who claims that the heavy screen on the window through which entrance was made is too much for the strength of a child to manage. The window is also several feet from the ground, a distance much too great for a child to reach.

Marks on Shelf.
The footprints, which are mainly noticeable on the counter in front of the candy shelf, apparently belong to a child of about ten years of age. They are plainly defined, and show that the child must have stood on the counter and examined the candy boxes carefully. Nothing, however, has been taken from the stock, and Miss Jones declares that so far as she can tell none of the boxes were touched, as the dust on their lids was undisturbed.

Police Notified.
The police were notified, and have examined the whole store carefully for traces that would explain the motive of the breaking into the store, but have failed either to fix the identity of the child or the object of the visit. They are inclined to the belief that the robbers were attempting an entrance into the Lien drug store next door, but through mistake entered the wrong building.

The same robbers are supposed to have been responsible for the loss of a small amount of money and other articles from the pockets of a suit left in a buggy in the rear of the store building of Theodore Staats, who was on a nutting expedition, and left his clothes in the buggy upon his return, after changing into street attire.

DREYFUSS WILL KNOCK T. J. LYNCH

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 19.—Strong intimations that charges of incompetency may be brought against Thomas J. Lynch, president of the National League by President Barney Dreyfuss of the Pittsburgh baseball club were heard today in baseball circles here.

Dreyfuss himself did not admit point blank that there would be a fight against Lynch but he did say: "Well, the league needs somebody who will see that the rules are enforced and obeyed. There have been many violations this season."

Lynch's action in turning down the Pittsburgh club's protests of the extra games played Sunday in Cincinnati and Chicago has aroused Mr. Dreyfuss' ire and there is bound to be trouble.

It is almost a certainty that Mr. Lynch will not be re-elected. That's the feeling here and the league meeting in December may bring some hot times.

STRIKE SITUATION
IN IRELAND WORSE

DUBLIN, Sept. 19.—The railway strike situation in Ireland became so threatening that a regiment of infantry was ordered held in readiness in England to be sent here on a moment's notice. Every line except the Dublin Southeastern is now affected. The movement of freight is at a standstill and few passengers travel on the great southern, western or midland lines because of the disorder that has affected the running of trains.

Some people quarrel with their relatives when the only thing they know to their discredit is that they are related to themselves.

CORSETS TABOOED

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Women lost their petticoats and corsets today by the fall edict of the Chicago Dressmakers' club, which is supposed to be the last court of dress resort between Detroit and San Antonio. Petticoats had expected that fate and were more or less resigned, but the corsets still had hopes until the verdict was handed in at the annual convention here today.

C. B. & Q. FIREMEN
BENEDICTS TODAY

John W. Gunn and Thomas Dugan Are Married to South Side Girls This Morning

Two firemen on the Burlington, John W. Gunn, 1449 Caledonia street, and Thomas Dugan, 1631 Charles street, were this morning married to south side young ladies, and both couples left at noon today for a wedding trip to Denver, Colo.

Mr. Gunn married Miss Barbara Stuber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Stuber, 910 Zeisler street. Mr. Dugan was wedded to Miss Frances Coady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Coady, 1324 Mississippi street. Mr. Gunn and Miss Stuber were married at 8 o'clock in the St. Joseph's cathedral on the south side by Father Sluiter, and Miss Coady and Mr. Dugan became man and wife at 7 o'clock at the St. Mary's church, Father Condon performing the ceremony.

Following the respective weddings, both of which were quiet and attended only by friends of the contracting parties, wedding breakfasts were served at the homes of each bride.

David Coady, a brother of the bride, was best man at the Coady-Dugan nuptials, with Miss Meta Beyer of St. Paul, as bridesmaid. Roy Skemp and Miss Rose Stuber, a sister of Mrs. Gunn, acted in that capacity for the Stuber-Gunn wedding.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR
ELECTS OFFICERS

The Christian Endeavor of the North Presbyterian church met at the home of Mr. Richard Gifford, of 1427 Avon street last evening. The officers were elected for the coming year and were as follows: President, Stella Sheely; vice president, Richard Gifford; secretary, Ollie Pope; treasurer, Annadelle Herrington; organist, Vert Higbee; assistant organist, Mildred Cordell; chairman of the Look Out Committee, Vista Higbee; the prayer meeting, Miss Vance; the social, Mabel Beckett, the missionary, rev. Clark. It was decided that they will hold a Halloween party on the 27th of October.

Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was spent.

Renewing Complexions
By Absorption

If your complexion is marred with blotches, moth patches, pimples or freckles, it's useless to pucker with powders and paints, lotions, creams and things, in an effort to get rid of the trouble. Unless you have some ability as an artist you'll mar your appearance still more.

The new and rational way is to take off the complexion itself, with all its offensive marks. Just get an ounce of pure mercolized wax at the druggist's and use at night same as cold cream. Remove next morning with water and soap, following with dash of cold water. The mercolized wax absorbs the half-dead scarf skin in flaky particles, so gradually no one guesses you're treating your face—unless it be by the result, which is truly wonderful. There's nothing like it for restoring a natural, healthy and beautiful complexion.—Aunt Sally.

CONTEMPT CHARGE
AGAINST LAWYER

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 19.—The sheriff has not yet been able to serve the warrant issued yesterday for the arrest of John H. Harrington, a Chicago attorney, on the charge of contempt of court in connection with the state's investigation of the McNamara cases. Harrington has recently been employed in San Francisco in the office of Olav A. Tveitmo, secretary-treasurer of the California Building Trades Council. A dispatch from San Francisco today says both Harrington and Tveitmo are out of the city.

The warrant, which was issued by Deputy District Attorney Veitch, charges that Harrington refused to answer before the grand jury questions concerning an alleged attempt to influence the testimony of Mrs. D. H. Ingersoll, who identified J. McNamara as the man known as "J. B. Bryce." The district attorney charges attempts were made to intimidate state's witnesses and that other contempt warrants will be issued later.

WHEEL SMASHED
WHEN AUTO SKIDS

An automobile, which is said to be owned by Rev. Dahl of La Crosse, skidded when the driver turned the corner of Eleventh and Cass streets yesterday morning, and crashed into the curb as a result of which the front axle of the machine was broken. Except for a broken axle no damage was done the car, and the driver, who was the only person in the machine, escaped uninjured.

SWIMS WITHOUT LIMBS

BAY OCEAN, Ore., Sept. 19.—With hands and feet tied, in a heavy sea, and with sea lions plunging around him, Arthur Cavill, world's champion swimmer of Portland, today swam one mile across the dangerous Tillamook bar. His time for the feat was 48 minutes.

of any action or proceeding between other parties by which the rights, interests or property of the state shall be liable to be injuriously affected, he shall inform the attorney-general thereof and require him to take such steps as may be necessary to protect the rights and interests of the state. * * *

2. If the governor shall be of the opinion that public interests require it, he may employ special counsel in the following case:

(a) To assist the attorney-general in any action or proceeding;

(b) To act instead of the attorney-general in any action or proceeding, if the attorney-general shall be in any way interested adversely to the state;

(c) To defend any action insti-

(d) To institute and prosecute an deem it his duty to defend rather than prosecute.

3. When any such special counsel shall be employed, a contract in shall be fixed the compensation to be paid to such special counsel by the state, which contract shall be executed in behalf of the state by the governor * * * and shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

Section 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved June 7, 1911.

Where the executive to assume that the "RIGHTS, INTERESTS and property of the state" are "liable to be injuriously affected," it would be within his power to "employ special counsel" on the ground that the attorney general is "interested adversely to the state," or because the attorney general would "deem it his duty to defend rather than to prosecute."

We believe it is among the "rights and interests" of the people of Wisconsin to have a fair trial of the question involved in the Stephenson case. We believe it is their "right" to be represented by officials honestly elected to office and that it is to their "interest" to have a fair and thorough investigation of the honesty of any election in which a question of corruption is raised.

As a party in interest to the investigation Attorney General Bancroft could not represent the state, even were he to appear. He is one of the men who had to do with the stealing of the Stephenson fund.

The matter should be put up to the governor, and his decision should be promptly forthcoming. For, in case he deems it not within the scope of his authority to appoint a lawyer for the Stephenson case, the time for providing one by private subscription is short.

KEEP AFTER BRUTE

We presume there is no tendency to drop the attempt to apprehend the assailant of the little Smith girl, for to give it up would amount to nonfeasance of the worst sort.

Enough is known to justify in the minds of the public officials strong conviction as to the identity of the culprit, and with this basis upon which to work the case should be pushed vigorously. The safety of the children of this community must be insured.

We cannot agree that ground for arrest does not already exist, but if we are mistaken in this, it is certain that a few missing links would be sufficient to strengthen the chain of evidence, which lacks only corroboration.

SHOWING HIM UP

Congressman Irving I. Lenroot's speech favoring the passage of the La Follette wool bill over President Taft's veto is worth reading.

To the president's assertion, in his veto message, that he vetoed the wool bill because he was not sure that it was based on sound information, Mr. Lenroot replied that it is the prerogative of congress, not the president, to make laws, and that the constitution does not contemplate the use of the veto upon lack of information that a bill is good, but only upon affirmative knowledge that the bill is bad in a material way.

To the president's statement that he vetoed the bill because it would be wise to await the report of the tariff commission, Mr. Lenroot replied that as an excuse for signing the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill, including the wool tariff which he himself pronounced to be "indefensible," the president said it would be unwise to veto it and keep the country in suspense until another session.

In fact, Mr. Lenroot showed such inconsistencies in Taft's veto message as to carry conviction that the president's reasons for vetoing the wool bill were not "all wool and a yard wide."

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

Song of Depression

I've harked to the dolorous dirge of the Sioux.

The syllable chants of a priest—
I've sunk to the depths of the devil-ish blues

At songs that obtain in the East!
I've heard all the sounds in the world that depress

A mortal who's bearing a load,
But the worst of them all, beyond question or guess,

Is that damnable "Tiss-s-s—" (Pianissimo) Whiss-s-s-s—
Of your tire gone flat on the road!

The whip-per-will song, you may grab it from me,
Inspires no mood of delight.

Nor yet does a hootowl, as far as I see,
Add much to a revelrous night!

But sad and depressing as both of them are They're sweet as a masterful ode—More musical, hitting and cheerful by far

Than the damnable "Tiss-s-s—" (Pianissimo) Whiss-s-s-s—When your tire goes flat on the road!

The journey of life is uncertain at best
And naught of its finish we know;
We take all the skidding, the bumps and the rest

And never know when we shall go;
If I could but choose and myself give the word

It would lift such a terrible load!
I'd holler "Strike now!" the first time I heard

That damnable "Tiss-s-s—" (Pianissimo) Whiss-s-s-s—
Of my tire gone flat on the road!

—John D. Wells in Buffalo News.

His Idea

When Ralph Delmore, who was assisting in staging "The Confession," was giving instructions one day to the actors as to what they should wear during the snow storm in the first act, he said: "I want every one to wear their heaviest overcoats during this scene, as it is supposed to be the coldest night in twenty years. Now don't forget this."

Mr. Delmore repeated this order several times to impress it on the minds of the actors, when one of them, undoubtedly new to the stage, and who had no lines at all to speak, approached him.

"I have no overcoat, Mr. Delmore, but suppose I wear my heavy flannel underwear?"—Kansas City Star.

Not High

A gentleman named O'Neil when traveling in a sleeping car four years ago, had secured a lower berth and gave it up for an upper one in order to accommodate a fellow traveler. This fellow traveler died recently and left Mr. O'Neil $20,000 for his courteous act.

At the first blush this seems a large sum for such a service, but we maintain that it is none too much.
Any man who could afford it would willingly pay $20,000 rather than sleep in the upper berth of a sleeping car.—Life.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES

They Are Closely Observing Health Conditions

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that the reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of applicants do not even suspect that they have the disease.

He states that judging from his own experience and reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has probably been more successful in relieving and curing these diseases than any remedy known. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of cures.

We find that Swamp-Root is strictly an herbal compound and we would advise our readers who feel in need of such a remedy to give it a trial. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes—fifty cents and one dollar.

However, if you wish first to test its wonderful merits, send to Dr.
Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle, absolutely free.

THE MISSISSIPPI DOUBBLE, ETC.

They entered wide grounds, and drew up before a stately building which lay back from the street.

Entering, they passed through a narrow hall, thence into a greater room, fitted with wide panels decorated with many portraits of men great in the history of this country.

There was a long table in this room, and about it—some of them not wholly visible in the rather dim light—there were several gentlemen. As her tail escort entered with a word of announcement, all of these rose, grave and silent, and courteously bowed to her. There approached from the head of the room a tall, handsome and urbane gentleman, who came and took her hand.

He, some of these others, she could not fail to know. She had come hither without query or comment, and she stood silent and waiting now, but her heart was racing, her color faintly rising in spite of all her efforts to be calm.

"My dear lady," he began, in a voice whose low, modulated tones scarce could fail to please any ear.
"I thank you for your presence here.
Will you not be seated? It is a very great honor that you give us, and all of these gentlemen appreciate it."

Josephine St. Auban curtsied and, remaining silent and wondering, assumed the seat assigned her, at the right hand of the tall and grave gentleman who had escorted her hither, and who now courteously handed her to her place.

"We meet absolutely without formality, my dear Madam," went on the tall and kindly man who had greeted her. "What goes on here is entirely unofficial and, as I need not say, it is altogether private; as you will remember."

"You will perhaps pardon my diffidence at such a time and place, Sir," she began, at last. "It is difficult for me to understand what small merit, or large error, of mine should bring me here."

"Madam, we wish that your abilities were smaller," smiled the tall gentleman. "That is the very thing of which we wish to speak. It is your activities which have seemed to us matters of concern—indeed, of kindly inquiry, if you do not mind. These gentlemen, I think, I do not need to introduce. We are all of us interested in the peace and dignity of this country."

"Have I done anything against either?" asked she.

"Ah, you have courage to be direct! In answer, I must say that we would like to ask regarding a few things which seem to be within your own knowledge. You, of course, are not unaware of the popular discontent which exists on this or the other side of the great political question in America today. We are advised that you yourself have been a traveler in our western districts; and it seemed to us likely that you might be possessed of information regarding matters there of which we get only more interested, more purely partisan, reports."

"That is not impossible," was her guarded reply. "It is true, I have talked with some in that part of the country."

"You were witness of the anxiety of our attempt to keep war and the talk of it far in the background—our desire to preserve the present state of peace?"

"Assuredly. But, Sirs, you will forgive me—I do not believe peace will last. I thought so, until this very day. In my belief, now, there will be war. It can not be averted."

"We are glad to hear the belief of all, on all sides," was the courteous rejoinder. "We ourselves hope the compromise to be more nearly final. Perhaps you as well as others hold to the so-called doctrine of the 'higher law'? Perhaps you found your politics in Rous-seau's Nouvelle Heloise, rather than in the more sober words of our own Constitution?" His eyes were quizzical, yet not unkind.

"Certain doctrines seem to endure," was her stout answer, kind-ling. "I am but a woman, yet I take it that anything that I can say will have no value unless it shall be sincere. To me, this calm is something which can not endure."

"There at least do not lack others who are of that belief. But why?"

"They told me in the West that the South has over three million slaves. They told me that the labor of more than seven million persons, black and white, is controlled by less than a third of a million men;
and of all that third of a million, less than eight thousand practically represent the owners of these blacks, who do not vote. Gentlemen, I have been interested in the cause of democracy in Europe—I do not deny it—yet it seems to me an obligatory and not a democracy which exists in the American South.
The conflict between an obligatory and a natural democracy is ages old.
It does not die. It seems to me that there is the end of all compromise—in the renewed struggle of men, all over the world, to set up an actual government of their own—not an obligatory, not a monarchy, not of property and wealth, but of actual democracy. It must come, here, some day."

"It is unusual, my dear lady, to find one of your sex disposed to philosophy so deep and clear as your own. You please us. Will you go on?"

"Sir, your courtesy gives me additional courage," was her answer.

"You have asked me for my beliefs —and I do not deny that I have some of my own, some I have sought to put in practice. To me, another phase of this question lies in something which the South itself seems not to have remembered.
The South figures that the cost of a laboring man, a slave, is perhaps a thousand or fifteen hundred dollars.
The South pays the cost of rearing that man. Any nation pays the cost of bringing up a human being. Yet, within this very year, Europe has sent into the North and the West a third of a million of men already reared, already paid for. Sir, you ask me what will be the result of this discontent, the result of this compromise. It seems to me plainly written in those two facts—industrial, not political facts. The 'finality' of this compromise, its final issue, will be established by conditions with which laws or their enforcement have little to do. Yet statesmen try to solve such a question by politics. I myself at one time thought it could endure—but only if all the blacks were bought, paid for and deported, to make room for those who come at no cost to us. I thought for a time it could be done.
I have tried to do it. I have failed.
I do not think others will follow in my attempt."

Withstood Temptation

A well known Scottish architect was traveling in Palestine recently, when news reached him of an addition to his family circle. The happy father immediately provided himself with some water from the Jordan to carry home for the christening of the infant, and returned to Scotland.

On the Sunday appointed for the ceremony he duly presented himself at the church, and sought out the beadle in order to hand over the precious water to his care. He pulled the flask from his pocket, but the beadle held up a warning hand and came nearer to whisper:

"No the noo, sir; no the noo! Maybe after the kirk's out!"—Tit-Bits.

A Wiley Witticism

The night that famous men debated at the National Press club in Washington on whether whiskers or baldness formed the greater handicap to great careers, the speeches were limited to ten minutes each, and Dr. H. W. Wiley, the pure food expert, was timekeeper.

"Only one minute more!" he called out to Representative Nicholas Longworth, who was arguing that a bald head is a fine thing to carry through the world.

"Does that minute include these unsolicited interruptions?" said Longworth.

"You bet it does," replied Wiley.
"So far, the interruptions have been the best part of the speeches."—

The Modern Way

The prodigal had returned.
"Father," he said, "are you going to kill the fattest calf?"

"No," responded the old man, looking the youth over carefully. "No, I'll let you live. But I'll put you to work and train some of that fat off you."—Toledo Blade.

were killed and many wounded.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Two impor-

The other is wanted for his knowl-

ETNA SPOUTS ASHES
CATANIA, Sept. 19.—Ashes, cinders and hot pebbles are falling in showers from Mount Etna upon Cata-nia today. There is a sprinkle from the crater ever since the present eruption began, but nothing to compare with what is in progress now.
The increase is probably due to to-

the indictments, there has been no offense. They ask that the indict-

RAIL RATES SUSPENDED

that they would increase their rates Oct. 28.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Louise

as late as yesterday. Threatened with eviction because of the outraged

So Noble packed up his suitcase
and trekked to Brooklyn. Gotham

The population of the city of La deaths and 152 births. The marriage rate is almost the same as the rate of increased population, the number during the last two months being 58.

SOUL MATE ROMANCE NOT GREAT SUCCESS

White Suydam, the Bluepoint mil-lionaire's wife, who eloped with a plumber's son capitulated to the conventions she so cheerfully scorned
as late as yesterday. Threatened with
eviction because of the outraged feelings of the other tenants, the young woman agreed to banish Fred Noble, her companion, from the apartment forever, and also signed an agreement to receive no other men callers there. Mrs. Suydam pleaded that if forced to leave she would have nowhere to go.

So Noble packed up his suitcase
and trekked to Brooklyn. Gotham concluded that this latest soul mate romance has not been the "all fire and success" Mrs. Suydam announced it was going to be.

POPULATION IS INCREASING HERE
The population of the city of La Crosse is increasing at the rate of one per day, according to the birth and death record for the past two months, during which time there has been an increase of sixty. During July and August there were 92 deaths and 152 births. The marriage
rate is almost the same as the rate
of increased population, the number
58.

UMBRELLA SETS
HOUSE AFIRE
Inability to find the key-hole without the aid of a match, is given as the indirect cause of a fire at the home of W. J. Snyder, 412 North Twelfth street, at 10 o'clock Sunday night. According to reports Mr. Snyder dropped a lighted match near an umbrella, which soon caught fire and would probably have destroyed the home had it not been discovered within a short time.
The damage was small.

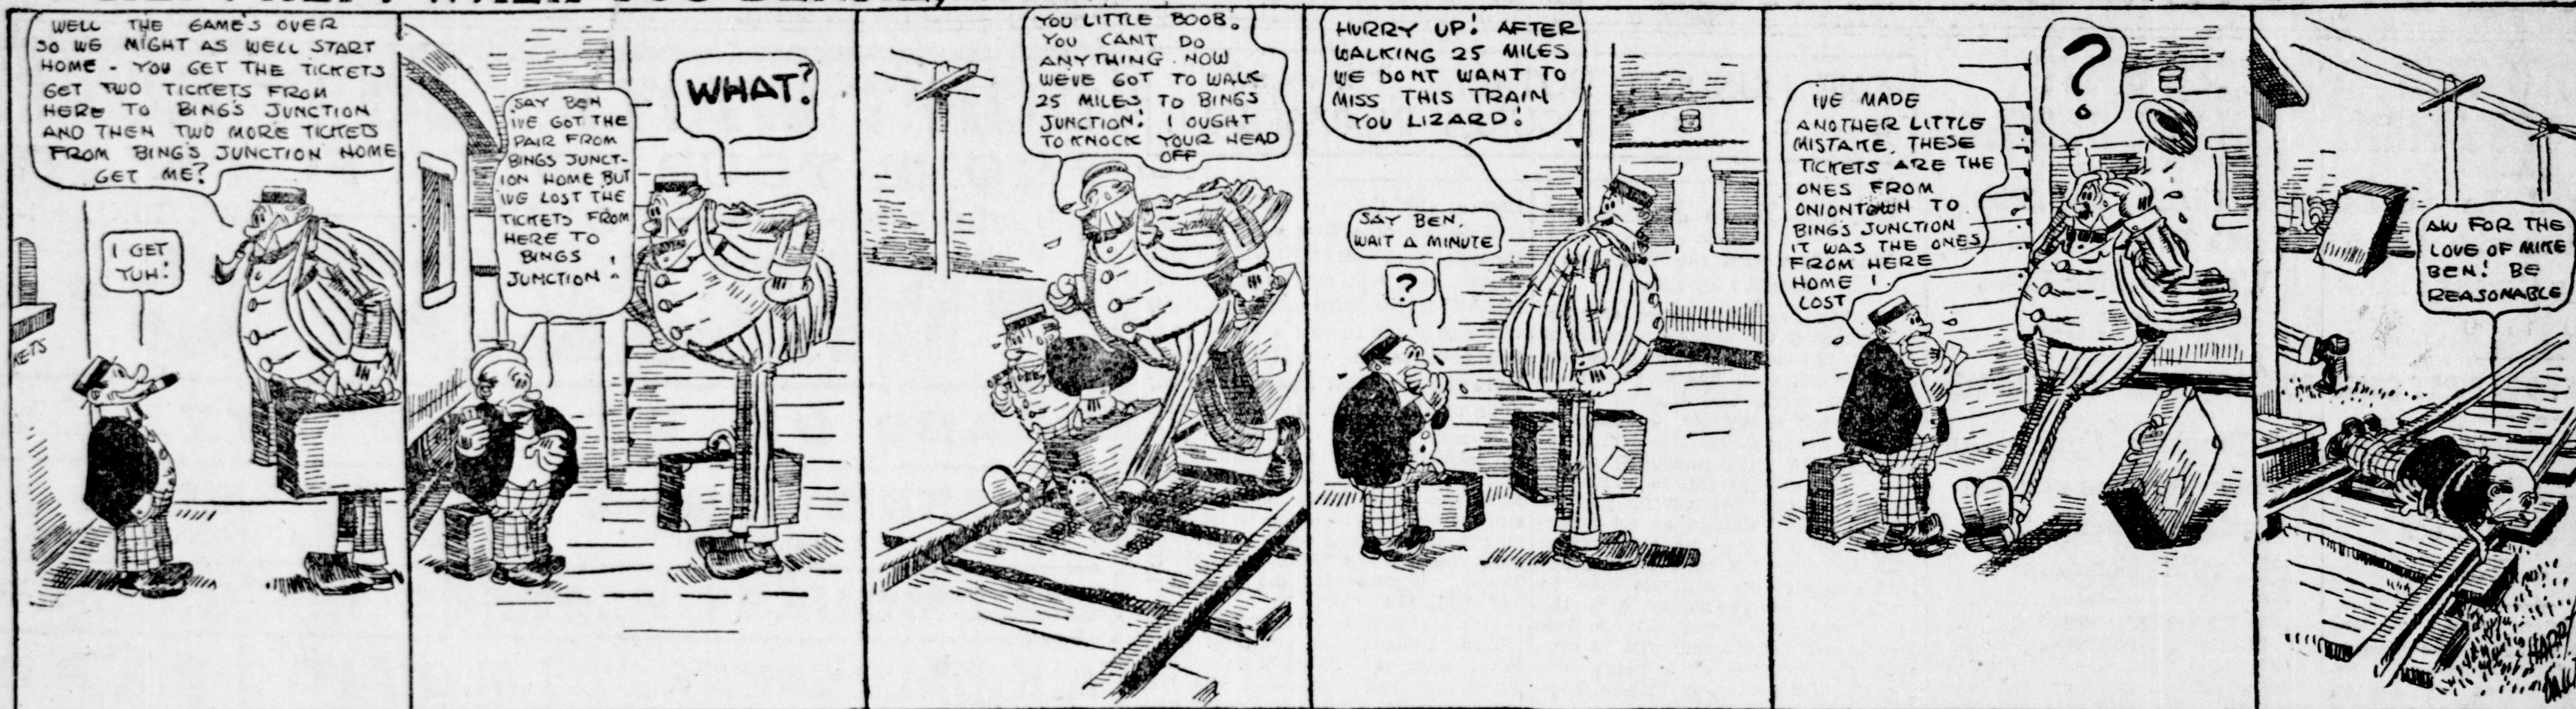

WITNESS DISAPPEARS
CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Two important witnesses wanted by the civil service commission, probing the police department disappeared today.
One of the witnesses is said to have information concerning "plain clothes" men acting as graft collecting agents for inspectors.

The other is wanted for his knowledge of gambling which took place at Comiskey's baseball park during the Gotch-Hackenschmidt match, for which Lieut. Walsh and Policeman McClennan will stand trial this afternoon.

ETNA SPOUTS ASHES
CATANIA, Sept. 19.—Ashes, cinders and hot pebbles are falling in showers from Mount Etna upon Cata-nia today. There is a sprinkle from
the crater ever since the present
eruption began, but nothing to compare with what is in progress now.
The increase is probably due to today's north wind. Prof. Ponte of Cata-nia university says the eruption is five times greater than that of 1910.

SPIDERS THAT CHANGE HUE

Chameleon-Like Insects Take Color of Leaves and Flowers to Catch Prey.

Every traveler that returns from tropical regions has extraordinary stories to tell of the strange mimicry of leaves and flowers by insects.

Sometimes the purpose of the imitation seems to be concealment and sometimes the laying of a snare to catch other insects. A curious instance of this was noticed on the Gold coast of Africa by a member of a British scientific expedition when he stopped to examine a singular looking white flower with a blue center.

He found, to his astonishment, that it was not a flower at all, but a spider's web, and that the supposed light blue heart of the flower was the spider itself lying in wait for its prey.

The legs of the cunning spider, yellow mottled with brown, were extended in such a way as to resemble the divisions between the petals of the flower.

The web itself, very delicately woven into a rosette pattern, with white, and three threads that suspended it from the bushes were so fine as to be almost invisible.

The whole thing had the appearance of being suspended in the air upon a stem concealed beneath.

When the scientist knocked the spider from its perch into a white gauze net his surprise was increased upon seeing his captive instantly turn from blue to white. Its former mimicry had been practiced as a snare; now it was playing a similar game for the sake of concealment.

But the end of the performance was not yet reached. When the investigator shook his captive its body again changed color, becoming this time a dull greenish-brown. Later he captured another larger specimen of the same species of spider, whose flower web resembled an orchid. This spider exhibited the same remarkable power of changing its color.—Harper's Weekly.

If the yearning to be a man were as strong among men as it is among women, nowadays, there might be more of them.

DOMESTIC MARKETS

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The stock market started with pronounced weakness in nearly all the important issues. Canadian Pacific declined 3 1/4 and losses of about a point were sustained in Union Pacific, Baltimore & Ohio and Southern Pacific. After the first few minutes the general list moved up with some vigor, a good part of the initial losses being recovered.

11 a. m.—After the upturn following the opening losses, trading became dull.

Government bonds unchanged; others steady.

Noon.—A brisk upward movement in the second hour carried prices of many stocks a point or more above the lowest.

2 p. m.—The improvement continued in the afternoon, additional gains being made in many stocks. The stock market closed strong.

Grain Letter

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—Opening of business for the Chicago wheat trade was marked by a decided buying flurry with prices from 3/4 to 1 1/2 c higher than Saturday's close.

Later, on big offerings, prices eased off slightly. Local traders appeared to be giving less attention to news from the northwest and were following the lead of the foreign market. The harvest news from Russia is poor.

There was continued strength in the corn market at the outset today but this market, like the wheat, sloughed off by noon, until prices were just about on a par with Saturday's closing. The Liverpool corn market was nearly as strong as that in wheat. The improved weather map and the fact that the Missouri report showed an improvement of 10 points in crop condition for the months of August had something to do with the slump. The shortage of feed over Europe is becoming an important feature in the coarse grain markets of this country.

Country houses had a fair volume of selling orders in oats on first trades. Trades are in a position to follow any lead in corn.

A heavy volume of trade was reported in all the hog products during the first hour. Heavy realizing sales followed the strong and higher opening.

POETRY DIDN'T BOTHER HIM

WINONA, Minn., Sept. 5.—The Minny league schedule was brought to a close in this city yesterday afternoon by the defeat of the La Crosse team in the first of a double header and an 0 to 0 tie in the second.

Price went on the slab for the Bonds in the first contest and made a bad ending, handing the Pirates sixteen safe hits which registered nine runs for the second players. The Outcasts found Wagner for ten safe bingles but were able to shove but one tally over the plate.

Brenton covered the mound in the second contest, which went seven innings by mutual agreement and showed up in his usual form. At the end of the seventh inning neither club had registered and the contest was called. No other games were played owing to rain.

ONE HUNDRED NOTABLE FIGURES IN BASEBALL

No. 88—Hugh Jennings

Who Plays Ball the Way You Should Play Life

Hugh Jennings' secret of baseball riches is the miser's methods of money riches—he never gives up. As a result, each has laid up treasures on earth, and Hugh is respected for same. Mr. Jennings is of that winny disposition which refuses to admit the possibility of defeat. He will go into a ninth inning with you and shriek just as optimistically, whistle as encouragingly, and eat just as much grass with the score 20 to 0 against Detroit (if such an example may be employed) as he would with the score reversed. Never, till the last man is out for his side will he concede the fraction of a point. It's a grand little way to inspire hope in the followers' breasts.

Mr. Jennings was born in Moolie, Pa., which is neither here nor there and not to be held against him, being put forward, indeed, as a part of simple biographical data of identification. The thing that really counts is that after he had played a spell with a team called the Leighton team, Louisville murmured soft somethings in his large and freckled ear, and the red-headed young man from Moolie went over to Kentucky, where Jack Chapman was running things in a baseball manner of speaking. Mr. Jennings' remarkable disposition amazed the tutored Mr. Chapman who has never recovered, not even to this day. "He was tractable and he was pleasant," gasped Mr. Chapman on a not distant occasion.

Which is plain truth. Mr. Jennings, for all that he plays ball with his hands, legs, head, voice and teeth, and is a bull dog for sticking is as mild a spoken man as ever brightened the diamond. He early found that he could play just as good baseball if he didn't cultivate the department of a stage manager.

Hughy was traded away to Baltimore, and there is the one sore spot in his otherwise sunshiny life.

He says if he owned Hades and Baltimore, he'd rent out Baltimore and inhabit Hades. He says anybody who can prove there's a worse baseball town in the world than Baltimore can get a bet from him at any hour of the day or night. However this may be, Mr. Jennings played as enthusiastically in Baltimore as at any time or place in his doings.

For three years while he was shortstopper for Baltimore he led the big league, and when it came to the club stuff, he was as batty as Harry Thaw. Figures for his fielding—943, 923, 944. Yes?

Hugh played a bit with Brooklyn and Philadelphia, and then back, back to Baltimore. After which you may remember the Detroit occasion, Well, sir, Detroit had been in the league for seven years and hadn't won any more championships than a rabbit, when along comes Hughy and his big whistle and his big voice and his field-prance, and contortions and all-round good-humored, encouraging, and gentlemen—a pennant! Next year another pennant, and next year a third pennant.

There doesn't seem much room to doubt the source of the winning streak. Hugh Jennings was responsible. He made players. And the players already made, he developed. He spread good nature over all the outfit, he spurred rivalry against others clubs, he inspired his boys with an abundance of his own sparkle, and he never gave up. Hugh Jennings has done a lot for Detroit and the team of that city, but this is a mighty poor measure to gauge him by. It is not too much to say that he has proven a national example. Baseball is only a game but then, so is life, and if you play life the way Hughy Jennings plays ball, you're going to win.

Tomorrow—Mike Donlin, the handy champion.

FOUR AVIATORS KILLED

PARIS, Sept. 5.—With four noted French aviators killed in three days a determined movement was started here today to compel more careful regulation of exhibition flights. Two men were incinerated in mid-air because of leaks in their gasoline tanks, one fell a great distance because of defects in his motor and one was precipitated 600 feet because of a break in his plane.

In the double-header with the Browns Ty Cobb got six hits himself which is batting 'em out. Austin of the Browns got five.

Brooklyn, 6-6; Philadelphia, 2-0
BROOKLYN, Sept. 5.—The Phillies lost both games to the Dodgers the latter winning the morning game 6 to 2, and the afternoon game 6 to 0. Scores:
Morning game—R H E
Brooklyn 00010041x—5 2 0
Philadelphia 011000000—2 6 3
Batteries: Knetzer, Bergen and Erwin; Alexander, Moore, Madden and Kleinow.

Second game—R H E
Brooklyn 10130010x—6 10 1
Philadelphia 000000000—0 4 1
Batteries: Rucker and Bergen; Moses, Curtis and Kleinow.

DIAMOND DUST

Splitting doubleheaders, as the Cubs did with the Cardinals isn't going to get back in the National league lead. The end of the season grows apace, too, whatever that means.

Six teams in the National league split even in Labor Day's doubleheader. Brooklyn was the only team to take a double-header, the Phillies dropping two.

In the American league two teams won their doubleheaders. Cleveland twice defeated the White Sox while the Yankees took two from the Boston Speed Boys.

In the morning game Manager Chance used seventeen Cubs and failed to stop the Cardinals. In the second game five hits counted five runs for the Cubs while the Cardinals scored four on eleven hits.

By a tenth inning rally in which they made things most unpleasant for Rube Marquard, the Rustlers took the second game from the Giants. The $11,000 beauty yielded fourteen hits.

Alexander the great was knocked out of the box in the first game by the Dodgers. In the second game, Nap Rucker held the Phillies to four hits, and the Infants easily won both games.

In the afternoon game between the Yankees and the speed boys, Vaughn was unhittable while in the morning game Ford outpitched Wood. The result was that the Yankees copped both.

By winning both games from the White Sox, the Naps are now tied for third place in the American league with the Yankees, and if the Tigers lose a few more have a chance to slip into second place.

In eight times at bat Larry La Jole punched out seven clean hits, including two doubles. Ty Cobb's batting honors may soon be wrested from him.

Whenever Walter Johnson isn't pitching the Senators to victory, he's winning games for them by his pinch hitting. Who said he wasn't worth that $7,500 a year?

AD WOLGAST IS SURE OF WINNING

"I will whip this fellow," he said, "and you will be surprised to see how easy I do it."

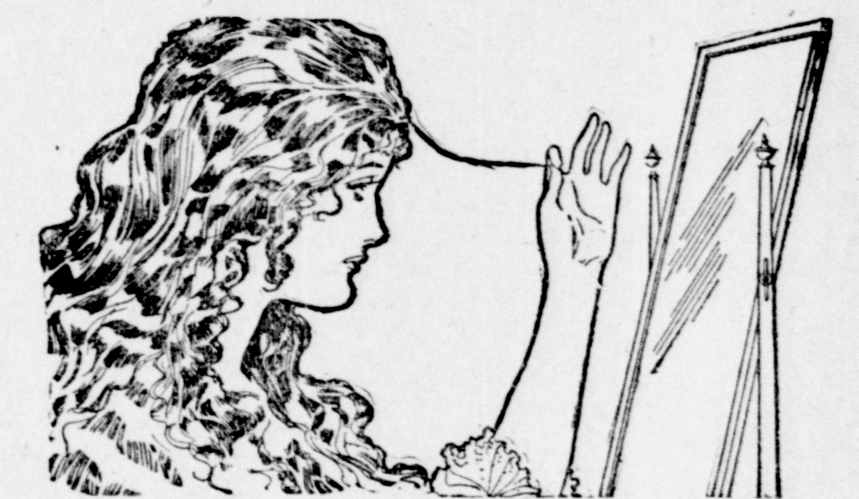

AMERICAN BOAT
LEADING RACES

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—With but one British contender remaining eligible, the motorboats competing in the second heat for the Harmsworth international cup awaited the starters gun on Huntington Bay this afternoon. The Dixie IV, through its signal yesterday, was a ruling favorite, but the Pioneer, the only English survivor, was expected to give the American boat a hard fight. Weather conditions were not as favorable as yesterday.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Tonight's battle between Sam Langford and Joe Jeanette for the light heavyweight championship, promises to settle the future of legalized boxing in this state. If there is a repetition of the wild scenes and price boosting that marked last week's bout, it is probable that the boxing committee will come down on the promoters with a heavy hand. Both of the big blacks said today they were fit. Jeanette has trained hard and Sam has been in trim right along.
